

Executive Proclamation State of South Dakota Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, On March 8, 1937, a boy child was born and christened Frank Brost; and,

WHEREAS, Frank grew to manhood in the rural Murdo area, and received diplomas from Murdo High School and the University of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, Frank married Martha Clark in 1967 and they have been blessed with three sons, John, Kurt and Mark, setting the stage for the next major event in Frank's life -- grandfatherhood; and,

WHEREAS, Frank is serving me well as a member of my staff, but his usefulness is drawing quickly to a close as he approaches the age of Geritol, dentures, prunes and Medicare; and,

WHEREAS, Frank Brost is racing to his FIFTIETH Birthday, an event which will end his trustworthiness and relegate his social life to rocking chairs and lap rugs; and,

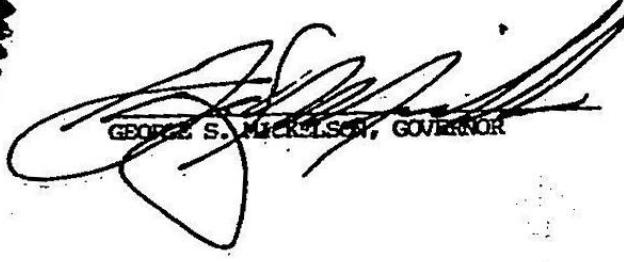

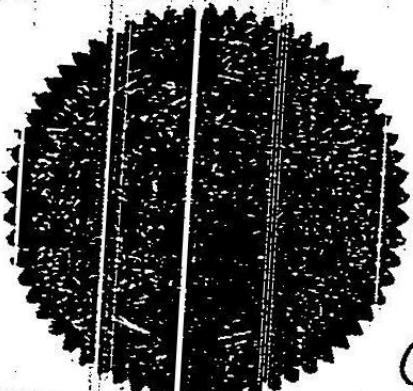

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor to proclaim to all of South Dakota that Frank Brost is just plain OLD;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 8, 1987, as in South Dakota, and I urge all of Frank's many friends and relatives to mock him and rub it in, because he is now a member in good standing of the "Over-the-Hill Gang".

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Governor's Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Sixth Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

GEORGE S. MICELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

Douglas J. Gangelow
DOLCE & GABERSON, SECRETARY OF STATE
